Ask and Answer Questions

Grade 1 Reading Worksheet - Challenge Me

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

READ THIS FIRST

The Slow Snail

On a spring day, a small snail sits on a garden path. It sees a green leaf far away. The snail starts to move. It goes slowly, slowly, slowly. Then big drops of rain fall. The snail hides under a wide leaf. It waits until the rain stops. The sun comes out. The snail starts to move again. At last, it reaches the sweet green leaf. The snail takes a rest.

1. Who is this story mostly about?

   a boy a frog a bird the snail

2. What does the snail do?

   digs a hole swims across a pond climbs a tall tree crawls toward a leaf

3. Where does this story take place?

   a school a kitchen a pond a garden path

4. When does this story happen?

   a snowy night a spring day lunchtime midnight

5. Why does the snail start to move?

   It wants to reach a green leaf.

   It wants to take a bath.

   It wants to go to school.

   It is looking for a friend.

6. What is true in this story?

   The snail never reaches the leaf.

   The snail goes home when it rains.

   The sun comes out.

   The snail runs fast to the leaf.

7. Which sentence is NOT something this story tells you?

The snail waits until the rain stops.

The snail hides under a wide leaf.

The sun comes out.

The snail goes home when it rains.

8. What is the snail like in this story?

patient fast loud angry

9. What can you learn from this story?

You should quit when it rains.

Going slowly can still get you there.

Snails are the fastest animals.

10. How does the story end?

The snail hides under a wide leaf.

The snail starts to move.

At last, it reaches the sweet green leaf.

The snail never reaches the leaf.

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Ask and Answer Questions

Answer Key - Grade 1 Reading Worksheet - Challenge Me

Circle the answer.

READ THIS FIRST

The Slow Snail

On a spring day, a small snail sits on a garden path. It sees a green leaf far away. The snail starts to move. It goes slowly, slowly, slowly. Then big drops of rain fall. The snail hides under a wide leaf. It waits until the rain stops. The sun comes out. The snail starts to move again. At last, it reaches the sweet green leaf. The snail takes a rest.

1. Who is this story mostly about?

   a boy a frog a bird the snail

2. What does the snail do?

   digs a hole swims across a pond climbs a tall tree crawls toward a leaf

3. Where does this story take place?

   a school a kitchen a pond a garden path

4. When does this story happen?

   a snowy night a spring day lunchtime midnight

5. Why does the snail start to move?

   It wants to reach a green leaf.

   It wants to take a bath.

   It wants to go to school.

   It is looking for a friend.

6. What is true in this story?

   The snail never reaches the leaf.

   The snail goes home when it rains.

   The sun comes out.

   The snail runs fast to the leaf.

7. Which sentence is NOT something this story tells you?

The snail waits until the rain stops.

The snail hides under a wide leaf.

The sun comes out.

The snail goes home when it rains.

8. What is the snail like in this story?

patient fast loud angry

9. What can you learn from this story?

You should quit when it rains.

Going slowly can still get you there.

Snails are the fastest animals.

10. How does the story end?

The snail hides under a wide leaf.

The snail starts to move.

At last, it reaches the sweet green leaf.

The snail never reaches the leaf.