Ask and Answer Questions

Grade 1 Reading Worksheet - Challenge Me

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

READ THIS FIRST

The Morning Fish

Every morning, Ben comes to school a little early. The fish need food each day, so he feeds the class fish before the bell rings. First, he opens the box of fish food. He sprinkles a small pinch into the tank. The two orange fish swim up to eat. Next, Ben looks at the water. It is clear and clean. Then he washes his hands at the sink. The bell rings. Ben sits at his desk. He likes his job.

1. Who is this story mostly about?

   Ben his mom his teacher the class

2. What does Ben do?

   cleans the board waters the plants walks the class dog feeds the class fish

3. Where does this story take place?

   the kitchen the zoo the pool the classroom

4. When does this story happen?

   every night every Sunday every summer every morning

5. Why does Ben feed the fish?

   The fish are sleepy.

   The tank is dirty.

   The fish need food each day.

   The teacher is late.

6. What is true in this story?

   Ben pours the whole box into the tank.

   There are two orange fish.

   Ben forgets to feed the fish.

   Ben feeds the fish after lunch.

7. Which sentence is NOT something this story tells you?

There are two orange fish.

Next, Ben looks at the water.

Ben sprinkles a small pinch of food.

Ben pours the whole box into the tank.

8. What is Ben like in this story?

silly responsible grumpy forgetful

9. What can you learn from this story?

Pets do not need care.

A small job each day helps others.

Always skip your jobs.

10. How does the story end?

First, he opens the box of fish food.

Then he washes his hands at the sink.

Next, Ben looks at the water.

Ben feeds the fish after lunch.

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Ask and Answer Questions

Answer Key - Grade 1 Reading Worksheet - Challenge Me

Circle the answer.

READ THIS FIRST

The Morning Fish

Every morning, Ben comes to school a little early. The fish need food each day, so he feeds the class fish before the bell rings. First, he opens the box of fish food. He sprinkles a small pinch into the tank. The two orange fish swim up to eat. Next, Ben looks at the water. It is clear and clean. Then he washes his hands at the sink. The bell rings. Ben sits at his desk. He likes his job.

1. Who is this story mostly about?

   Ben his mom his teacher the class

2. What does Ben do?

   cleans the board waters the plants walks the class dog

   feeds the class fish

3. Where does this story take place?

   the kitchen the zoo the pool the classroom

4. When does this story happen?

   every night every Sunday every summer every morning

5. Why does Ben feed the fish?

   The fish are sleepy.

   The tank is dirty.

   The fish need food each day.

   The teacher is late.

6. What is true in this story?

   Ben pours the whole box into the tank.

   There are two orange fish.

   Ben forgets to feed the fish.

   Ben feeds the fish after lunch.

7. Which sentence is NOT something this story tells you?

There are two orange fish.

Next, Ben looks at the water.

Ben sprinkles a small pinch of food.

Ben pours the whole box into the tank.

8. What is Ben like in this story?

silly responsible grumpy forgetful

9. What can you learn from this story?

Pets do not need care.

A small job each day helps others.

Always skip your jobs.

10. How does the story end?

First, he opens the box of fish food.

Then he washes his hands at the sink.

Next, Ben looks at the water.

Ben feeds the fish after lunch.