Day and Night Sky

Grade 1 Science Worksheet - Challenge Me

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

1. How can you stay safe in the sun?
   Wear a hat and never stare at the sun.
   Look at the sun through a window.
   Stay in the sun with no water.
   Look straight at the sun.

2. A class looks at the sky each night for a week and sees stars each time. What can they say?

   We see stars after dark.
   We see stars only in the morning.
   We see stars only on cloudy days.
   We see stars only at noon.

3. Which one can we see only in the day?
   an owl the sun stars the moon

4. Which list is in order from morning to night?
   sunrise, noon, sunset, stars
   stars, sunset, noon, sunrise
   sunset, stars, sunrise, noon
   noon, sunrise, stars, sunset

5. For five mornings the sun came up in the east. What will happen on day six?

   It will come up in the east.
   It will come up in the west.
   It will come up in the north.
   It will come up in the south.

6. The sun is behind clouds. Is it still day?

   No. It is night.
   Yes. The sun is still up there.
   No. The moon is out.
   No. The sun is gone.

7. A girl saw the moon at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. What does this show?

The sun was gone.
The stars were out.
It was night.
The moon can be seen in the day.

8. Why do we not see stars at noon?

The stars have gone away. The stars are asleep. The moon hides them.
The sky is too bright.

9. The sun is low in the west. Where will it be in one hour?

in the east in the same place lower in the sky higher in the sky

READ THIS FIRST

Leo's moon

Leo saw the moon in the sky at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The sun was still up and the sky was blue. That night, he saw the moon again, and many stars.

10. What did Leo learn?

The moon can be seen in the day and at night.
The sun and moon are never seen together.
Stars are out in the afternoon.
The moon only shows up at night.

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Day and Night Sky

Answer Key - Grade 1 Science Worksheet - Challenge Me

Circle the answer.

1. How can you stay safe in the sun?

   Wear a hat and never stare at the sun.

   Look at the sun through a window.

   Stay in the sun with no water.

   Look straight at the sun.

2. A class looks at the sky each night for a week and sees stars each time. What can they say?

   We see stars after dark.

   We see stars only in the morning.

   We see stars only on cloudy days.

   We see stars only at noon.

3. Which one can we see only in the day?

   an owl the sun stars the moon

4. Which list is in order from morning to night?

   sunrise, noon, sunset, stars

   stars, sunset, noon, sunrise

   sunset, stars, sunrise, noon

   noon, sunrise, stars, sunset

5. For five mornings the sun came up in the east. What will happen on day six?

   It will come up in the east.

   It will come up in the west.

   It will come up in the north.

   It will come up in the south.

6. The sun is behind clouds. Is it still day?

No. It is night.

Yes. The sun is still up there.

No. The moon is out.

No. The sun is gone.

7. A girl saw the moon at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. What does this show?

The sun was gone.

The stars were out.

It was night.

The moon can be seen in the day.

8. Why do we not see stars at noon?

The stars have gone away. The stars are asleep. The moon hides them.

The sky is too bright.

9. The sun is low in the west. Where will it be in one hour?

in the east in the same place lower in the sky higher in the sky

READ THIS FIRST

Leo's moon

Leo saw the moon in the sky at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The sun was still up and the sky was blue. That night, he saw the moon again, and many stars.

10. What did Leo learn?

The moon can be seen in the day and at night.

The sun and moon are never seen together.

Stars are out in the afternoon.

The moon only shows up at night.