Day and Night Sky

Grade 1 Science Worksheet - Challenge Me

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

1. A class looks at the sky each night for a week and sees stars each time. What can they say?

We see stars after dark.
We see stars only at noon.
We see stars only on cloudy days.
We see stars only in the morning.

2. Which one can we see only in the day?

an owl stars the sun the moon

3. Which list is in order from morning to night?

stars, sunset, noon, sunrise
noon, sunrise, stars, sunset
sunset, stars, sunrise, noon
sunrise, noon, sunset, stars

4. For five mornings the sun came up in the east. What will happen on day six?

It will come up in the east.
It will come up in the south.
It will come up in the west.
It will come up in the north.

5. The sun is behind clouds. Is it still day?

No. It is night.
Yes. The sun is still up there.
No. The moon is out.
No. The sun is gone.

6. A girl saw the moon at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. What does this show?

It was night.
The moon can be seen in the day.
The sun was gone.
The stars were out.

7. Why do we not see stars at noon?

The moon hides them. The sky is too bright. The stars have gone away. The stars are asleep.

8. The sun is low in the west. Where will it be in one hour?

lower in the sky in the same place in the east higher in the sky

9. Which is a pattern?

Last night I saw one star.
Yesterday the moon was big.
Today it is sunny.
Every morning the sun comes up in the east.

READ THIS FIRST

Leo's moon

Leo saw the moon in the sky at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The sun was still up and the sky was blue. That night, he saw the moon again, and many stars.

10. What did Leo learn?

Stars are out in the afternoon.
The sun and moon are never seen together.
The moon only shows up at night.
The moon can be seen in the day and at night.

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Day and Night Sky

Answer Key - Grade 1 Science Worksheet - Challenge Me

Circle the answer.

1. A class looks at the sky each night for a week and sees stars each time. What can they say?

We see stars after dark.
We see stars only at noon.
We see stars only on cloudy days.
We see stars only in the morning.

2. Which one can we see only in the day?

an owl stars the sun the moon

3. Which list is in order from morning to night?

stars, sunset, noon, sunrise
noon, sunrise, stars, sunset
sunset, stars, sunrise, noon
sunrise, noon, sunset, stars

4. For five mornings the sun came up in the east. What will happen on day six?

It will come up in the east.
It will come up in the south.
It will come up in the west.
It will come up in the north.

5. The sun is behind clouds. Is it still day?

No. It is night.
Yes. The sun is still up there.
No. The moon is out.
No. The sun is gone.

6. A girl saw the moon at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. What does this show?

It was night.
The moon can be seen in the day.
The sun was gone.
The stars were out.

7. Why do we not see stars at noon?

The moon hides them. The sky is too bright. The stars have gone away. The stars are asleep.

8. The sun is low in the west. Where will it be in one hour?

lower in the sky in the same place in the east higher in the sky

9. Which is a pattern?

Last night I saw one star.
Yesterday the moon was big.
Today it is sunny.
Every morning the sun comes up in the east.

READ THIS FIRST

Leo's moon

Leo saw the moon in the sky at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The sun was still up and the sky was blue. That night, he saw the moon again, and many stars.

10. What did Leo learn?

Stars are out in the afternoon.
The sun and moon are never seen together.
The moon only shows up at night.
The moon can be seen in the day and at night.