Main Topic and Key Details

Grade 1 Reading Worksheet - Building Confidence

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

READ THIS FIRST

Sharing Books

A library is a place where people share books. You can borrow a book for free. When you finish, you bring it back. Then someone else can read it too. A librarian works at the library. The librarian helps you find a good book. Many libraries also have story time for children. It helps children love books.

1. What is this text mostly about?

   story time at the library how a library works what a librarian does

2. Which sentence is a key detail from this text?

   You must buy every book.

   You keep a library book forever.

   You can borrow a book for free.

3. Which sentence is NOT in this text?

   The librarian helps you find a good book.

   You can borrow a book for free.

   You must buy every book.

4. Which title fits the whole text best?

   Places in a Town

   Sharing Books at the Library

   What a Librarian Does

5. Which sentence gives another key detail?

   The librarian helps you find a good book.

   Libraries only have books for adults.

   You keep a library book forever.

6. Which title is too small for the whole text?

- The Librarian's Job
- Sharing Books at the Library
- Places in a Town

7. Which title is too big for this text?

- Places in a Town
- Story Time At the Library
- Sharing Books at the Library

8. Which sentence tells more about how a library works?

- You must buy every book.
- Many libraries also have story time for children.
- Libraries only have books for adults.

9. Which question does this text answer?

- How many books are in the world?
- Who writes the books?
- How does a library work?

10. What does the word "borrow" mean in this text?

- to use something and give it back
- to buy something
- to throw something away

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Main Topic and Key Details

Answer Key - Grade 1 Reading Worksheet - Building Confidence

Circle the answer.

READ THIS FIRST

Sharing Books

A library is a place where people share books. You can borrow a book for free. When you finish, you bring it back. Then someone else can read it too. A librarian works at the library. The librarian helps you find a good book. Many libraries also have story time for children. It helps children love books.

1. What is this text mostly about?

   story time at the library how a library works what a librarian does

2. Which sentence is a key detail from this text?

   You must buy every book.

   You keep a library book forever.

   You can borrow a book for free.

3. Which sentence is NOT in this text?

   The librarian helps you find a good book.

   You can borrow a book for free.

   You must buy every book.

4. Which title fits the whole text best?

   Places in a Town

   Sharing Books at the Library

   What a Librarian Does

5. Which sentence gives another key detail?

   The librarian helps you find a good book.

   Libraries only have books for adults.

   You keep a library book forever.

6. Which title is too small for the whole text?

The Librarian's Job

Sharing Books at the Library

Places in a Town

7. Which title is too big for this text?

Places in a Town

Story Time At the Library

Sharing Books at the Library

8. Which sentence tells more about how a library works?

You must buy every book.

Many libraries also have story time for children.

Libraries only have books for adults.

9. Which question does this text answer?

How many books are in the world?

Who writes the books?

How does a library work?

10. What does the word "borrow" mean in this text?

to use something and give it back

to buy something

to throw something away