Grade 2 Social Studies Worksheet - Challenge Me

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

1. Ana's family makes tamales together every winter. Mia's class sings a welcome song whenever a new student joins. How are they alike?
   Both cost a lot of money for every family.
   Both are done with other people, again and again.
   Both happen only one time, and then they stop.

2. Why does Ana's family make tamales together every winter?
   To make the day end sooner.
   To take care of a shared place.
   To share food and spend time together.

3. A neighbor invites you to a festival you have never seen. Which question shows respect?
   Why would anyone do that?
   Can you tell me more about it?
   Isn't our way of doing it much better?

4. A visitor learns that Kenji's family takes off shoes at the door. What is a respectful thing to do?
   Say that your own way is much better.
   Take off your shoes when you visit.
   Say it looks silly and very strange.

5. Why do some traditions stay the same for many years?
   Grown-ups forget how to stop doing them.
   They are made up fresh every single time.
   People like to keep what matters to them.

6. At the spring parade, people wear clothes from their family's homeland. On Service Day each year, the town plants a tree in the park. How are they alike?
   Both are done by many people in the community, year after year.
   Both are done by only one family in the whole town.
   Both are done in secret, away from other people.
