Cultures and Traditions

Grade 2 Social Studies Worksheet - Challenge Me

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

1. Each fall, neighbors hang lanterns along their street for a harvest festival. Every summer, the town holds a folk dance show. How are they alike?
   Both were started last week by a new family.
   Both are done by one person all alone at home.
   Both happen once every year for a whole community.

2. Why does Mia's class sing a welcome song for new students?
   To take care of a shared place.
   To help a new student feel welcome.
   To keep the home clean and show respect.

3. A classmate tells you about a family tradition. Which question shows respect?
   Why can't you just skip it this one time?
   Why do you do such a weird thing?
   What does this mean to your family?

4. A visitor learns that Ana's family makes tamales every winter. What is a respectful thing to do?
   Ask Ana how her family makes them.
   Say it looks silly and very strange.
   Walk away while they try to explain it.

5. A new student does not celebrate the same holidays as you. What can you do?
   Ask them to stop celebrating their holidays.
   Tell them that their holidays are not real.
   Ask and listen to learn about their holidays.

6. Kenji's family takes off shoes at the door every day. Grandpa tells a story about his village at every family dinner. How are they alike?
   Both happen at home, again and again.
   Both need a special building to be done in.
   Both happen only on one holiday of the year.

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Cultures and Traditions

Answer Key - Grade 2 Social Studies Worksheet - Challenge Me

Circle the answer.

1. Each fall, neighbors hang lanterns along their street for a harvest festival. Every summer, the town holds a folk dance show. How are they alike?

   Both were started last week by a new family.

   Both are done by one person all alone at home.

   Both happen once every year for a whole community.

2. Why does Mia's class sing a welcome song for new students?

   To take care of a shared place.

   To help a new student feel welcome.

   To keep the home clean and show respect.

3. A classmate tells you about a family tradition. Which question shows respect?

   Why can't you just skip it this one time?

   Why do you do such a weird thing?

   What does this mean to your family?

4. A visitor learns that Ana's family makes tamales every winter. What is a respectful thing to do?

   Ask Ana how her family makes them.

   Say it looks silly and very strange.

   Walk away while they try to explain it.

5. A new student does not celebrate the same holidays as you. What can you do?

   Ask them to stop celebrating their holidays.

   Tell them that their holidays are not real.

   Ask and listen to learn about their holidays.

6. Kenji's family takes off shoes at the door every day. Grandpa tells a story about his village at every family dinner. How are they alike?

   Both happen at home, again and again.

   Both need a special building to be done in.

   Both happen only on one holiday of the year.