Cultures and Traditions

Grade 2 Social Studies Worksheet - Challenge Me

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

1. At the spring parade, people wear clothes from their family's homeland. On Service Day each year, the town plants a tree in the park. How are they alike?
   Both are done in secret, away from other people.
   Both are done by many people in the community, year after year.
   Both happen only when it is raining outside.

2. Why does the town hold a folk dance show every summer?
   To take care of a shared place.
   To share music and dance with the town.
   To help a new student feel welcome.

3. A classmate tells you about a family tradition. Which question shows respect?
   Why can't you just skip it this one time?
   What does this mean to your family?
   Why do you do such a weird thing?

4. A visitor learns that people wear special clothes at a parade. What is a respectful thing to do?
   Say it looks silly and very strange.
   Ask politely what the clothes mean.
   Say that your own way is much better.

5. Why do some traditions stay the same for many years?
   People like to keep what matters to them.
   Nobody in the family is allowed to change them.
   Grown-ups forget how to stop doing them.

6. Ana's family makes tamales together every winter. Mia's class sings a welcome song whenever a new student joins. How are they alike?
   Both cost a lot of money for every family.
   Both happen only one time, and then they stop.
   Both are done with other people, again and again.

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Cultures and Traditions

Answer Key - Grade 2 Social Studies Worksheet - Challenge Me

Circle the answer.

1. At the spring parade, people wear clothes from their family's homeland. On Service Day each year, the town plants a tree in the park. How are they alike?

   Both are done in secret, away from other people.

   Both are done by many people in the community, year after year.

   Both happen only when it is raining outside.

2. Why does the town hold a folk dance show every summer?

   To take care of a shared place.

   To share music and dance with the town.

   To help a new student feel welcome.

3. A classmate tells you about a family tradition. Which question shows respect?

   Why can't you just skip it this one time?

   What does this mean to your family?

   Why do you do such a weird thing?

4. A visitor learns that people wear special clothes at a parade. What is a respectful thing to do?

   Say it looks silly and very strange.

   Ask politely what the clothes mean.

   Say that your own way is much better.

5. Why do some traditions stay the same for many years?

   People like to keep what matters to them.

   Nobody in the family is allowed to change them.

   Grown-ups forget how to stop doing them.

6. Ana's family makes tamales together every winter. Mia's class sings a welcome song whenever a new student joins. How are they alike?

   Both cost a lot of money for every family.

   Both happen only one time, and then they stop.

   Both are done with other people, again and again.