Cultures and Traditions

Grade 2 Social Studies Worksheet - Challenge Me

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

1. Each fall, neighbors hang lanterns along their street for a harvest festival. Every summer, the town holds a folk dance show. How are they alike?
   Both happen every single day of the whole year.
   Both are done by one person all alone at home.
   Both happen once every year for a whole community.

2. Why do people wear clothes from their family's homeland at the parade?
   To make the day end sooner.
   To help a new student feel welcome.
   To show pride in their culture.

3. A classmate tells you about a family tradition. Which question shows respect?
   Why don't you just do it the normal way?
   What does this mean to your family?
   Why can't you just skip it this one time?

4. A visitor learns that Grandpa tells village stories at family dinner. What is a respectful thing to do?
   Laugh at it and walk away.
   Listen and ask kind questions.
   Walk away while they explain.

5. A tradition is passed down. What does that mean?
   Older family members teach it to younger ones.
   It is thrown away after one year.
   It is bought in a store near the family home.

6. Kenji's family takes off shoes at the door every day. Grandpa tells a story about his village at every family dinner. How are they alike?
   Both happen at home, again and again.
   Both need a special building to be done in.
   Both are done only at school with a teacher.

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Cultures and Traditions

Answer Key - Grade 2 Social Studies Worksheet - Challenge Me

Circle the answer.

1. Each fall, neighbors hang lanterns along their street for a harvest festival. Every summer, the town holds a folk dance show. How are they alike?

   Both happen every single day of the whole year.

   Both are done by one person all alone at home.

   Both happen once every year for a whole community.

2. Why do people wear clothes from their family's homeland at the parade?

   To make the day end sooner.

   To help a new student feel welcome.

   To show pride in their culture.

3. A classmate tells you about a family tradition. Which question shows respect?

   Why don't you just do it the normal way?

   What does this mean to your family?

   Why can't you just skip it this one time?

4. A visitor learns that Grandpa tells village stories at family dinner. What is a respectful thing to do?

   Laugh at it and walk away.

   Listen and ask kind questions.

   Walk away while they explain.

5. A tradition is passed down. What does that mean?

   Older family members teach it to younger ones.

   It is thrown away after one year.

   It is bought in a store near the family home.

6. Kenji's family takes off shoes at the door every day. Grandpa tells a story about his village at every family dinner. How are they alike?

   Both happen at home, again and again.

   Both need a special building to be done in.

   Both are done only at school with a teacher.