Pancakes for Mom

Early on Sunday morning, Luis tiptoed into the kitchen so he would not wake anyone. It was Mom's birthday. He wanted to surprise her with pancakes in bed.

Luis climbed on a stool and reached for the flour. The bag tipped over the edge of the shelf. Whoosh! Flour spilled across the floor and all over his pajamas. Luis's eyes filled with tears. Now the surprise was ruined.

Dad came in, rubbing his sleepy eyes. He looked at the white mess and chuckled softly. "You look like a little snowman," he said.

Luis wiped his eyes. He grabbed the broom and swept up every bit of flour. Then Dad helped him measure and stir. Together they cooked a stack of fluffy pancakes.

Luis carried the plate to Mom's room. Mom sat up and smiled. Luis stood tall. He had made the surprise happen after all.
