Story Structure

Grade 2 Reading Worksheet - Building Confidence

Name _____ Date _____

Read the text. Circle the best answer.

READ THIS FIRST

The Last Puzzle Piece

June and Grandma were building a big puzzle of a red barn at the kitchen table. After three days, only one hole was left in the sky. But the last piece was nowhere to be found!

June looked inside the puzzle box. It held only a few bits of cardboard dust. Then she crawled under the table and felt along the rug. She found a crayon and a button, but no puzzle piece.

Grandma's cat, Biscuit, was napping on a chair nearby. June noticed something blue stuck in Biscuit's fluffy tail. It was the missing piece!

June gently pulled the piece free and pressed it into the hole. The puzzle was finished at last. Grandma hugged June, and they glued the puzzle onto a board to hang on the wall.

1. How does the ending wrap up the story?
   - June crawls under the table to look for the missing piece.
   - The puzzle is finished and will hang on the wall.
   - One hole is still left in the sky of the puzzle.

2. Which event belongs in the middle of the story?
   - June crawls under the table to search.
   - June presses the piece into the hole in the sky.
   - June and Grandma start the puzzle on the table.

3. Which sentence from the story is part of the ending?
   - The puzzle was finished at last.
   - It held only a few bits of cardboard dust.
   - But the last piece was nowhere to be found!

4. Why does the ending make sense?
   - Grandma bought a brand new puzzle at the store.
   - June gave up looking for the piece and went to bed early.
   - The missing piece was found, so the hole could be filled.

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Story Structure

Answer Key - Grade 2 Reading Worksheet - Building Confidence

Read the text. Circle the best answer.

READ THIS FIRST

The Last Puzzle Piece

June and Grandma were building a big puzzle of a red barn at the kitchen table. After three days, only one hole was left in the sky. But the last piece was nowhere to be found!

June looked inside the puzzle box. It held only a few bits of cardboard dust. Then she crawled under the table and felt along the rug. She found a crayon and a button, but no puzzle piece.

Grandma's cat, Biscuit, was napping on a chair nearby. June noticed something blue stuck in Biscuit's fluffy tail. It was the missing piece!

June gently pulled the piece free and pressed it into the hole. The puzzle was finished at last. Grandma hugged June, and they glued the puzzle onto a board to hang on the wall.

1. How does the ending wrap up the story?

June crawls under the table to look for the missing piece.

The puzzle is finished and will hang on the wall.

One hole is still left in the sky of the puzzle.

2. Which event belongs in the middle of the story?

June crawls under the table to search.

June presses the piece into the hole in the sky.

June and Grandma start the puzzle on the table.

3. Which sentence from the story is part of the ending?

The puzzle was finished at last.

It held only a few bits of cardboard dust.

But the last piece was nowhere to be found!

4. Why does the ending make sense?

Grandma bought a brand new puzzle at the store.

June gave up looking for the piece and went to bed early.

The missing piece was found, so the hole could be filled.