A Rainy Field Day

Field day at Maple School was supposed to be outside on Thursday. That morning, dark clouds covered the sky, and rain fell on the grass. Principal Jackson told the teachers to move the games into the gym. The relay race had to be shortened because the gym was smaller. Ana's team still won by one second. Afterward, everyone shared orange slices and cold water. Ana said the rain made the day more fun because they had never had field day indoors.
