Compare Stories

Grade 3 Reading Worksheet - Challenge Me

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

READ THIS FIRST

Two Versions of the Ant and the Grasshopper

Story 1: The Ant and the Grasshopper (an old fable)

All summer long, Ant worked in the hot fields. She carried grain, one piece at a time, to her home under a rock. Her back ached, but she did not stop.

Grasshopper lay in the tall grass and sang. "Why work so hard?" he asked. "Come and sing with me. There is plenty of food everywhere!"

"Winter is coming," Ant said. "I am getting ready." Grasshopper just laughed and kept singing.

Then the cold winds came. Snow covered the fields, and the food was gone. Grasshopper was cold and hungry. He knocked on Ant's door and asked for some grain.

"What did you do all summer?" Ant asked.

"I sang," said Grasshopper.

"Then you should have planned ahead," said Ant, and she closed the door. Grasshopper went away sad. The next summer, he worked hard and saved his own food.

Story 2: Cricket's Gift (a new version)

All summer long, the ants worked in the fields. They carried grain to their home under a rock. Cricket did not carry grain. Instead, he played his fiddle and sang. His songs were about sunshine, rain, and friends.

Some ants grumbled. "Cricket is lazy," they said. But the oldest ant, Mira, listened to the songs. She noticed that the workers marched faster when Cricket played.

When winter came, Cricket knocked on the ants' door. He was cold and hungry. The young ants wanted to send him away. "He did not work," they said.

"Wait," said Mira. "Cricket gave us something, too. His music made our work feel lighter."

The ants let Cricket in and shared their grain. All winter, while snow fell outside, Cricket played the songs they loved best. The long, dark days felt shorter. When spring came, the ants agreed. Food fills your belly, but music fills your heart. Everyone has something to give.

1. How are the lessons of the two stories different?
   - Story 1 says everyone has something to give; Story 2 says to plan ahead.
   - Both stories say that you should never share your food.
   - Both stories say that singing is a waste of time.
   - Story 1 says to plan ahead; Story 2 says everyone has something to give.

2. What is the same about the plots of both stories?
   - The ants send everyone away in winter.
   - A singer asks the ants for food in winter.
   - The ants learn how to play music.
   - A singer saves grain all summer long.

3. How is the ending of Story 1 different from the ending of Story 2?
   Both singers are let inside for the winter.
   Ant lets Grasshopper in, but the ants send Cricket away.
   Ant closes the door, but the ants let Cricket in.
   Both stories end with the singers moving far away.

4. Which character in Story 2 changes the other ants' minds?
   the youngest ant Ant, the hard worker Cricket, the singer Mira, the oldest ant

5. What does Mira notice that the other ants do not?
   Cricket was saving his own grain.
   The workers marched faster when Cricket played.
   The grain was running out by fall.
   Snow was coming earlier this year.

6. How is Grasshopper different from Cricket?
   Grasshopper saves grain, but Cricket does not save any.
   Grasshopper plays a fiddle, but Cricket only sings.
   Cricket's music helps the ants, but Grasshopper's singing does not.
   Cricket laughs at the ants, but Grasshopper helps them.

7. Some ants grumbled about Cricket. What does grumbled mean?
   sang a cheerful song
   complained in an unhappy way
   worked very quickly
   whispered a secret

8. What does Grasshopper do the next summer in Story 1?
   He plays music for the ants all day.
   He lies in the grass and sings again.
   He works hard and saves his own food.
   He moves into Ant's home under the rock.

9. What is the same about the settings of both stories?
   Both happen in a city during the spring.
   Both happen inside the ants' home all year.
   Both happen in fields over summer and winter.
   Story 1 is only in summer, and Story 2 is only in winter.

10. In Story 2, what does 'music fills your heart' mean?
    Music makes people feel happy inside.
    Music makes your heart beat faster.
    Music is a kind of food to eat.
    Music is loud enough to fill a room.

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Compare Stories

Answer Key - Grade 3 Reading Worksheet - Challenge Me

Circle the answer.

READ THIS FIRST

Two Versions of the Ant and the Grasshopper

Story 1: The Ant and the Grasshopper (an old fable)

All summer long, Ant worked in the hot fields. She carried grain, one piece at a time, to her home under a rock. Her back ached, but she did not stop.

Grasshopper lay in the tall grass and sang. "Why work so hard?" he asked. "Come and sing with me. There is plenty of food everywhere!"

"Winter is coming," Ant said. "I am getting ready." Grasshopper just laughed and kept singing.

Then the cold winds came. Snow covered the fields, and the food was gone. Grasshopper was cold and hungry. He knocked on Ant's door and asked for some grain.

"What did you do all summer?" Ant asked.

"I sang," said Grasshopper.

"Then you should have planned ahead," said Ant, and she closed the door. Grasshopper went away sad. The next summer, he worked hard and saved his own food.

Story 2: Cricket's Gift (a new version)

All summer long, the ants worked in the fields. They carried grain to their home under a rock. Cricket did not carry grain. Instead, he played his fiddle and sang. His songs were about sunshine, rain, and friends.

Some ants grumbled. "Cricket is lazy," they said. But the oldest ant, Mira, listened to the songs. She noticed that the workers marched faster when Cricket played.

When winter came, Cricket knocked on the ants' door. He was cold and hungry. The young ants wanted to send him away. "He did not work," they said.

"Wait," said Mira. "Cricket gave us something, too. His music made our work feel lighter."

The ants let Cricket in and shared their grain. All winter, while snow fell outside, Cricket played the songs they loved best. The long, dark days felt shorter. When spring came, the ants agreed. Food fills your belly, but music fills your heart. Everyone has something to give.

1. How are the lessons of the two stories different?
   - Story 1 says everyone has something to give; Story 2 says to plan ahead.
   - Both stories say that you should never share your food.
   - Both stories say that singing is a waste of time.
   - Story 1 says to plan ahead; Story 2 says everyone has something to give.

2. What is the same about the plots of both stories?
   - The ants send everyone away in winter.
   - A singer asks the ants for food in winter.
   - The ants learn how to play music.
   - A singer saves grain all summer long.

3. How is the ending of Story 1 different from the ending of Story 2?
Both singers are let inside for the winter.
Ant lets Grasshopper in, but the ants send Cricket away.
Ant closes the door, but the ants let Cricket in.
Both stories end with the singers moving far away.

4. Which character in Story 2 changes the other ants' minds?
the youngest ant Ant, the hard worker Cricket, the singer Mira, the oldest ant

5. What does Mira notice that the other ants do not?
Cricket was saving his own grain.
The workers marched faster when Cricket played.
The grain was running out by fall.
Snow was coming earlier this year.

6. How is Grasshopper different from Cricket?
Grasshopper saves grain, but Cricket does not save any.
Grasshopper plays a fiddle, but Cricket only sings.
Cricket's music helps the ants, but Grasshopper's singing does not.
Cricket laughs at the ants, but Grasshopper helps them.

7. Some ants grumbled about Cricket. What does grumbled mean?
sang a cheerful song
complained in an unhappy way
worked very quickly
whispered a secret

8. What does Grasshopper do the next summer in Story 1?
He plays music for the ants all day.
He lies in the grass and sings again.
He works hard and saves his own food.
He moves into Ant's home under the rock.

9. What is the same about the settings of both stories?
Both happen in a city during the spring.
Both happen inside the ants' home all year.
Both happen in fields over summer and winter.
Story 1 is only in summer, and Story 2 is only in winter.

10. In Story 2, what does 'music fills your heart' mean?
Music makes people feel happy inside.
Music makes your heart beat faster.
Music is a kind of food to eat.
Music is loud enough to fill a room.