Two Stories About Sharing

Story 1: The Big Umbrella

Rain poured down on the forest. Rabbit hopped home under a big leaf umbrella. On the way, she saw Squirrel shivering under a bush.

"Come share my umbrella," Rabbit said. Squirrel hopped under the leaf. The two friends walked home together, dry and warm.

The next week, the sun was very hot. Squirrel had a big shady tree, and he shared it with Rabbit.

Story 2: The Last Orange

Hana came home from school very hungry. There was only one orange left in the bowl. Then her little brother, Ken, came into the kitchen.

"I'm hungry too," Ken said.

Hana looked at the orange. She wanted it all for herself. But she peeled it and split it into two parts. She gave half to Ken.

Ken smiled. Then he opened his backpack and shared his crackers with her. They sat at the kitchen table and ate their orange together.
