Compare Stories

Grade 3 Reading Worksheet

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

READ THIS FIRST

Two Stories About Zara and Grandpa

Story 1: The Wobbly Bike

Zara's old bike had a loose wheel. Every time she rode it, the bike wobbled. On Saturday, Grandpa set out his toolbox on the driveway.

"Can we fix it fast?" Zara asked. "I want to ride now."

"Good work takes time," Grandpa said. He showed her how to tighten each bolt, one at a time. Zara got grease on her hands and tried to hurry. A bolt rolled under the car. She sighed and crawled after it. Grandpa handed her a rag to wipe her hands.

Finally, the wheel was tight. Zara rode down the street, smooth and steady. She waved at Grandpa with a big grin.

Story 2: The Birdhouse

In winter, Zara and Grandpa built a birdhouse in the garage. Zara wanted to paint it right away. But Grandpa said they had to sand the wood first.

Zara rubbed the sandpaper back and forth. Her arms got tired. "This is boring," she said.

"Smooth wood holds paint better," Grandpa told her.

Zara kept sanding until the wood felt like silk. They nailed on the roof together. Then she painted the birdhouse bright blue. In spring, two little wrens moved in. Zara watched them from the window and felt proud.

1. What lesson do both stories teach?
   - Taking time to do a job well pays off.
   - Bikes are more fun than birdhouses.
   - Grandparents should do the hard work.
   - Always keep your tools in a toolbox.

2. How are the settings of the two stories different?
   - Both stories take place at a park.
   - Story 1 is in the garage, and Story 2 is on the driveway.
   - Story 1 is on the driveway, and Story 2 is in the garage.
   - Story 1 is at school, and Story 2 is at a store.

3. How is Zara alike in both stories?
   - She fixes things all by herself.
   - She wants to rush at the start.
   - She gives up before the job is done.
   - She is afraid of Grandpa's tools.

4. Which story tells about a bolt rolling under the car?
   neither story  Story 1  both stories  Story 2

5. In Story 2, what does Grandpa say to explain why they must wait?
   Paint dries faster in spring.
   Good work takes time.
   Birds like blue houses best.
   Smooth wood holds paint better.

6. How do both stories end?
   Zara feels good about the finished work.
   Zara breaks what she has made.
   Zara decides to start a new project.
   Zara asks Grandpa to finish the job.

7. Zara sanded until the wood felt like silk. What does this mean?
   The wood was very wet.  The wood was very rough.  The wood was very smooth.
   The wood was very heavy.

8. How are the jobs in the two stories different?
   Both stories are about fixing a bike.
   Story 1 builds something new, and Story 2 is a repair.
   Story 1 is a repair, and Story 2 builds something new.
   Both stories are about painting a house.

9. What happens in Story 2 that shows the hard work paid off?
   Zara rode down the street smoothly.
   Two wrens moved into the birdhouse.
   Grandpa set out his toolbox.
   Zara's arms got tired from sanding.

10. Why are these two stories called stories in a series?
    They both happen on the same Saturday.
    They have the same characters in new adventures.
    They tell the same events in different words.
    They are both mostly about birds.

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Compare Stories

Answer Key - Grade 3 Reading Worksheet

PencilGo

Circle the answer.

READ THIS FIRST

Two Stories About Zara and Grandpa

Story 1: The Wobbly Bike

Zara's old bike had a loose wheel. Every time she rode it, the bike wobbled. On Saturday, Grandpa set out his toolbox on the driveway.

"Can we fix it fast?" Zara asked. "I want to ride now."

"Good work takes time," Grandpa said. He showed her how to tighten each bolt, one at a time. Zara got grease on her hands and tried to hurry. A bolt rolled under the car. She sighed and crawled after it. Grandpa handed her a rag to wipe her hands.

Finally, the wheel was tight. Zara rode down the street, smooth and steady. She waved at Grandpa with a big grin.

Story 2: The Birdhouse

In winter, Zara and Grandpa built a birdhouse in the garage. Zara wanted to paint it right away. But Grandpa said they had to sand the wood first.

Zara rubbed the sandpaper back and forth. Her arms got tired. "This is boring," she said.

"Smooth wood holds paint better," Grandpa told her.

Zara kept sanding until the wood felt like silk. They nailed on the roof together. Then she painted the birdhouse bright blue. In spring, two little wrens moved in. Zara watched them from the window and felt proud.

1. What lesson do both stories teach?
   - Taking time to do a job well pays off.
   - Bikes are more fun than birdhouses.
   - Grandparents should do the hard work.
   - Always keep your tools in a toolbox.

2. How are the settings of the two stories different?
   - Both stories take place at a park.
   - Story 1 is in the garage, and Story 2 is on the driveway.
   - Story 1 is on the driveway, and Story 2 is in the garage.
   - Story 1 is at school, and Story 2 is at a store.

3. How is Zara alike in both stories?
   - She fixes things all by herself.
   - She wants to rush at the start.
   - She gives up before the job is done.
   - She is afraid of Grandpa's tools.

4. Which story tells about a bolt rolling under the car?
   neither story  Story 1  both stories  Story 2

5. In Story 2, what does Grandpa say to explain why they must wait?
   - Paint dries faster in spring.
   - Good work takes time.
   - Birds like blue houses best.
   - Smooth wood holds paint better.

6. How do both stories end?
   - Zara feels good about the finished work.
   - Zara breaks what she has made.
   - Zara decides to start a new project.
   - Zara asks Grandpa to finish the job.

7. Zara sanded until the wood felt like silk. What does this mean?
   - The wood was very wet.
   - The wood was very rough.
   - The wood was very smooth.
   - The wood was very heavy.

8. How are the jobs in the two stories different?
   - Both stories are about fixing a bike.
   - Story 1 builds something new, and Story 2 is a repair.
   - Story 1 is a repair, and Story 2 builds something new.
   - Both stories are about painting a house.

9. What happens in Story 2 that shows the hard work paid off?
   - Zara rode down the street smoothly.
   - Two wrens moved into the birdhouse.
   - Grandpa set out his toolbox.
   - Zara's arms got tired from sanding.

10. Why are these two stories called stories in a series?
    - They both happen on the same Saturday.
    - They have the same characters in new adventures.
    - They tell the same events in different words.
    - They are both mostly about birds.