The Spring Art Show

Last Friday, Maple Street School held its spring art show. The show was in the school gym from four to six o'clock. Every class from kindergarten to fifth grade had art on display.

The third graders made clay animals. There were cats, turtles, owls, and even a giraffe. Mr. Diaz, the art teacher, said the class used twenty pounds of clay.

The fifth graders painted a huge mural. It is twelve feet long and shows the town park in every season. I think the mural was the most beautiful thing in the show. The winter part, with its blue snow, was my favorite.

About two hundred people came to the show. Families walked around and looked at every table. The best part was the lemonade stand run by the second graders. It was delicious!

The art will stay up in the front hall until May 10. You should go see it before then. It is a show you will not want to miss.
