Goods and Services

Grade 3 Social Studies Worksheet - Challenge Me

PencilGo

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

1. Which sentence shows a consumer making a choice?

   A store owner fills the shelves.

   A shoemaker sews new shoes.

   A driver brings shoes to the store.

   Leo picks the cheaper pair of shoes.

2. A cook makes soup. A server brings it to your table. What does the server give you?

   the recipe the soup a good a service

3. Why might a toy producer make fewer toys?

   The toys are selling very fast.

   Fewer consumers want to buy them.

   More consumers want to buy them.

   The store's shelves are empty.

4. Wheat becomes flour, then bread. Which order goes from the first producer to the consumer?

   shopper, baker, miller, farmer

   farmer, miller, baker, shopper

   baker, miller, farmer, shopper

   farmer, baker, miller, shopper

5. A farmer grows wheat. A miller makes flour. A baker makes bread. Who uses the miller's good?

   the baker the bread shopper the farmer the miller

6. A farmer grows wheat, a miller makes flour, a baker makes bread, and a driver delivers it. Who gives a service?

   the farmer the miller the driver the baker

7. Nina sells lemonade. She buys lemons and cups for it. Which sentence is true?

Nina is a producer and a consumer.

Nina is only a consumer.

Nina only gives a service.

Nina is only a producer.

8. A storm closes the town's only flour mill. Which producer will have the hardest time?

the dentist the baker the hair stylist the bus driver

9. Why does a town need both goods and services?

People need things to use and work done for them.

Services are things you can hold.

Goods are free, but services cost money.

Goods are made only by the town.

10. Which change would help a bakery produce more bread?

raising the price of flour hiring fewer bakers closing on weekends

buying a second oven

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Goods and Services

Answer Key - Grade 3 Social Studies Worksheet - Challenge Me

Circle the answer.

1. Which sentence shows a consumer making a choice?

   A store owner fills the shelves.

   A shoemaker sews new shoes.

   A driver brings shoes to the store.

   Leo picks the cheaper pair of shoes.

2. A cook makes soup. A server brings it to your table. What does the server give you?

   the recipe the soup a good a service

3. Why might a toy producer make fewer toys?

   The toys are selling very fast.

   Fewer consumers want to buy them.

   More consumers want to buy them.

   The store's shelves are empty.

4. Wheat becomes flour, then bread. Which order goes from the first producer to the consumer?

   shopper, baker, miller, farmer

   farmer, miller, baker, shopper

   baker, miller, farmer, shopper

   farmer, baker, miller, shopper

5. A farmer grows wheat. A miller makes flour. A baker makes bread. Who uses the miller's good?

   the baker the bread shopper the farmer the miller

6. A farmer grows wheat, a miller makes flour, a baker makes bread, and a driver delivers it. Who gives a service?

   the farmer the miller the driver the baker

7. Nina sells lemonade. She buys lemons and cups for it. Which sentence is true?

Nina is a producer and a consumer.

Nina is only a consumer.

Nina only gives a service.

Nina is only a producer.

8. A storm closes the town's only flour mill. Which producer will have the hardest time?

the dentist the baker the hair stylist the bus driver

9. Why does a town need both goods and services?

People need things to use and work done for them.

Services are things you can hold.

Goods are free, but services cost money.

Goods are made only by the town.

10. Which change would help a bakery produce more bread?

raising the price of flour hiring fewer bakers closing on weekends

buying a second oven