Informational Main Idea

Grade 3 Reading Worksheet - Building Confidence

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

READ THIS FIRST

Clearing Snow from City Streets

When a big snowstorm heads toward a city, many workers get ready. Their job is to clear the roads so people can travel safely.

Before the snow starts, trucks spread salt on the roads. Salt helps stop ice from sticking to the ground. Some cities mix the salt with water first. This wet salt stays on the road better.

Once the snow falls, snowplows go to work. A plow has a wide metal blade on the front. The blade pushes snow off to the side of the road. Plow drivers often work all night long.

Workers clear the busiest roads first. Roads to hospitals and fire stations come at the top of the list. Quiet side streets are cleared later, often the next morning.

All of this planning helps the city keep moving. Buses can run, and doctors can get to work. Thanks to these workers, people stay safe after a storm.

1. What is the main idea of this text?
   - Quiet side streets are the very last roads to be cleared.
   - Workers plan and clear roads so people can travel after snow.
   - Snowplows have a wide metal blade on the front of the truck.

2. What is paragraph 2 mostly about?
   - putting salt on roads before snow
   - clearing the busiest roads first
   - pushing snow to the side of the road

3. Which detail supports the idea that the busiest roads are cleared first?
   - Plow drivers often work all night long.
   - Wet salt stays on the road much better.
   - Roads to hospitals come at the top of the list.

4. Which sentence is true but too narrow to be the main idea of the whole text?
   - Some cities mix salt with water.
   - Many workers keep roads safe in snowstorms.
   - Cities never clear their side streets.

5. Which is the best summary of this text?

Snowplows push snow to the side, and the drivers often work all through the night.

People should stay home in a snowstorm until every road in the city is clear.

Workers salt roads, plow snow, and clear busy roads first to keep people safe.

6. Which is the best title for this text?

The Metal Plow Blade  Keeping City Roads Clear  Fun Games to Play in Snow

7. What is paragraph 3 mostly about?

why salt keeps ice off the road

why buses can run after a storm

how snowplows push snow off the roads

8. Which sentence is NOT a detail from this text?

Quiet side streets are cleared later.

Plows melt the snow with hot air.

Trucks spread salt before the snow starts.

9. Which detail from the last paragraph shows why the work matters?

Salt stops ice from sticking.

Doctors can get to work.

The blade pushes snow aside.

10. How do paragraphs 2, 3, and 4 support the main idea?

Each tells a story about a different driver.

Each tells one part of the work to clear roads.

Each tells a reason why snow falls in winter.

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Informational Main Idea

Answer Key - Grade 3 Reading Worksheet - Building Confidence

Circle the answer.

READ THIS FIRST

Clearing Snow from City Streets

When a big snowstorm heads toward a city, many workers get ready. Their job is to clear the roads so people can travel safely.

Before the snow starts, trucks spread salt on the roads. Salt helps stop ice from sticking to the ground. Some cities mix the salt with water first. This wet salt stays on the road better.

Once the snow falls, snowplows go to work. A plow has a wide metal blade on the front. The blade pushes snow off to the side of the road. Plow drivers often work all night long.

Workers clear the busiest roads first. Roads to hospitals and fire stations come at the top of the list. Quiet side streets are cleared later, often the next morning.

All of this planning helps the city keep moving. Buses can run, and doctors can get to work. Thanks to these workers, people stay safe after a storm.

1. What is the main idea of this text?

   Quiet side streets are the very last roads to be cleared.

   Workers plan and clear roads so people can travel after snow.

   Snowplows have a wide metal blade on the front of the truck.

2. What is paragraph 2 mostly about?

   putting salt on roads before snow

   clearing the busiest roads first

   pushing snow to the side of the road

3. Which detail supports the idea that the busiest roads are cleared first?

   Plow drivers often work all night long.

   Wet salt stays on the road much better.

   Roads to hospitals come at the top of the list.

4. Which sentence is true but too narrow to be the main idea of the whole text?

Some cities mix salt with water.

Many workers keep roads safe in snowstorms.

Cities never clear their side streets.

5. Which is the best summary of this text?

Snowplows push snow to the side, and the drivers often work all through the night.

People should stay home in a snowstorm until every road in the city is clear.

Workers salt roads, plow snow, and clear busy roads first to keep people safe.

6. Which is the best title for this text?

The Metal Plow Blade  Keeping City Roads Clear  Fun Games to Play in Snow

7. What is paragraph 3 mostly about?

why salt keeps ice off the road

why buses can run after a storm

how snowplows push snow off the roads

8. Which sentence is NOT a detail from this text?

Quiet side streets are cleared later.

Plows melt the snow with hot air.

Trucks spread salt before the snow starts.

9. Which detail from the last paragraph shows why the work matters?

Salt stops ice from sticking.

Doctors can get to work.

The blade pushes snow aside.

10. How do paragraphs 2, 3, and 4 support the main idea?

Each tells a story about a different driver.

Each tells one part of the work to clear roads.

Each tells a reason why snow falls in winter.