Narrative Beginnings

Grade 3 Writing Worksheet - Building Confidence

PencilGo

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer, or write your answer on the lines.

1. Which first sentence would make a reader want to keep reading Nora's school play story?

   Nora was in the school play.

   Nora opened her mouth to sing, but no sound came out.

   Nora's school had a play in May.

2. Which sentence should come first in a story about Lily's lost mitten?

   Lily pulled on one mitten and could not find the other.

   Lily found the mitten under her bed.

   Then Lily looked in her coat pocket.

3. Story plan: Ana's kite gets stuck in a tree at the park. Which opening tells who is there and where?

   Ana ran across the windy park with her red kite.

   In the end, Ana got her kite back.

   The wind was strong that day.

4. Mia is baking muffins with her dad. Which opening shows a problem right away?

   The muffins smelled warm and sweet at the end.

   Mia lifted the flour bag, and it spilled across the floor.

   Mia and her dad like to bake on Sundays.

5. Write two sentences to begin a story about a puppy that runs off at the park. Sentence 1 tells who and where. Sentence 2 tells the problem.

   Who and where _____

   _____

   The problem _____

   _____

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Narrative Beginnings

Answer Key - Grade 3 Writing Worksheet - Building Confidence

Circle the answer, or write your answer on the lines.

1. Which first sentence would make a reader want to keep reading Nora's school play story?

   Nora was in the school play.

   Nora opened her mouth to sing, but no sound came out.

   Nora's school had a play in May.

2. Which sentence should come first in a story about Lily's lost mitten?

   Lily pulled on one mitten and could not find the other.

   Lily found the mitten under her bed.

   Then Lily looked in her coat pocket.

3. Story plan: Ana's kite gets stuck in a tree at the park. Which opening tells who is there and where?

   Ana ran across the windy park with her red kite.

   In the end, Ana got her kite back.

   The wind was strong that day.

4. Mia is baking muffins with her dad. Which opening shows a problem right away?

   The muffins smelled warm and sweet at the end.

   Mia lifted the flour bag, and it spilled across the floor.

   Mia and her dad like to bake on Sundays.

5. Write two sentences to begin a story about a puppy that runs off at the park. Sentence 1 tells who and where. Sentence 2 tells the problem.

   Who and where _____

   _____

   The problem _____

   _____

   the first sentence names a character and the park; the second shows the puppy running off.