The Lost Mitten

Nora lost her red mitten on the way to school. She looked in her bag and under her desk, but it was gone. At recess she saw a little boy with one red mitten on his hand and one bare, shaking hand. Nora almost said, “That is mine!” Then she looked at his cold fingers. The next day she brought him her other red mitten. “Now you have a pair,” she said.

1. Who is your favorite person in this story? Tell why.

2. What did Nora do the next day? Tell why she did it.

1. Who is your favorite person in this story? Tell why.

Model answer: My favorite person is Nora because she is kind to the little boy. (Any full sentence that restates the question and uses the story is right.)

2. What did Nora do the next day? Tell why she did it.

Model answer: Nora gave the boy her other mitten because his hand was cold. (Any full sentence that restates the question and uses the story is right.)
