The Class Garden

Room 4 planted a garden behind the school. Every Monday a different pair of students watered the bean plants. When it was Eli's turn, it was raining, so he almost skipped it. Then he saw that the soil under the leaves was still dry. He carried a small can of water to each plant. By June the vines were tall, and the class picked a basket of beans to share.

1. What is your favorite part of this story? Tell why.

2. What job did Eli have in the garden? Tell what he did.

Then he saw that the soil under the leaves was still dry. He carried a small can of water to each plant. By June the vines were tall, and the class picked a basket of beans to share.

1. What is your favorite part of this story? Tell why.

Model answer: My favorite part is the end because the class shares the beans. (Any full sentence that restates the question and uses the story is right.)

2. What job did Eli have in the garden? Tell what he did.

Model answer: Eli's job was to water the bean plants, and he carried a can of water to each one. (Any full sentence that restates the question and uses the story is right.)
