The Spelling Bee

Kofi practiced his spelling words every night. On the day of the class spelling bee, he stood up and his mind went blank. His hands felt cold. He took a deep breath and said each letter slowly, one by one. When he finished the word “island,” his teacher smiled. Kofi did not win the bee, but he sat down feeling proud.

1. What did Kofi do when his mind went blank? Use the story.

2. Why was Kofi proud even though he did not win? Give a reason.

Kofi practiced his spelling words every night. On the day of the class spelling bee, he stood up and his mind went blank. His hands felt cold. He took a deep breath and said each letter slowly, one by one. When he finished the word “island,” his teacher smiled. Kofi did not win the bee, but he sat down feeling proud.

1. What did Kofi do when his mind went blank? Use the story.

Model answer: He took a deep breath and said each letter slowly, one by one. (Any full sentence that restates the question and uses the story is right.)

2. Why was Kofi proud even though he did not win? Give a reason.

Model answer: He was proud because he spelled his word correctly and did his best. (Any full sentence that restates the question and uses the story is right.)
