Rain on the Parade

Mia's town planned a parade for Saturday morning. Mia practiced her trumpet all week. On Saturday, dark clouds covered the sky and rain began to fall. The mayor said the parade would move into the school gym. Mia's band marched in a circle around the basketball court, and people clapped from the bleachers. It was louder inside, and everyone liked that.

1. Was Mia sad or happy at the end? Explain with details from the story.

2. What does this story show about changing a plan? Tell how you know.

1. Was Mia sad or happy at the end? Explain with details from the story.

Model answer: She was happy because everyone clapped and liked the loud music. (Any full sentence that restates the question and uses the story is right.)

2. What does this story show about changing a plan? Tell how you know.

Model answer: It shows a plan can change and still turn out well, because the parade moved inside and everyone liked it. (Any full sentence that restates the question and uses the story is right.)
