The Broken Kite

Theo and his dad built a kite from sticks and red paper. At the park, the wind lifted it high, but then a gust tore a hole in the paper. Theo wanted to go home. His dad pulled a roll of tape from his pocket. Together they fixed the hole and sent the kite back into the sky. “It flies even better now,” said Theo.

1. What is your favorite part of this story? Tell why.

2. What did Theo's dad do when the kite tore? Tell what happened next.

His dad pulled a roll of tape from his pocket. Together they fixed the hole and sent the kite back into the sky. “It flies even better now,” said Theo.

1. What is your favorite part of this story? Tell why.

Model answer: My favorite part is when the kite goes back up because it flies again. (Any full sentence that restates the question and uses the story is right.)

2. What did Theo's dad do when the kite tore? Tell what happened next.

Model answer: He took out tape and they fixed the hole, and then the kite flew again. (Any full sentence that restates the question and uses the story is right.)
