The Lost Kite

On Saturday morning, Priya and her brother Dev carried their new red kite to Maple Park. The wind was strong, so the kite shot up past the trees. Suddenly the string snapped. The kite tumbled onto the roof of the park shelter. Dev climbed onto a picnic table and used a long stick to hook the string. Priya held the table steady. After ten minutes of careful work, the kite came down. Both children cheered and promised to tie a stronger knot next time.
