Three Branches of Government

Grade 4 Social Studies Worksheet - Challenge Me

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

1. The President vetoes a bill. How can Congress still make it a law?

   pass it again with a simple majority

   ask the Supreme Court to sign it

   have the Vice President sign it

   vote again and win two-thirds

2. A bill passes the House of Representatives but fails in the Senate. What happens next?

   The Supreme Court decides if it passes.

   It does not go to the President.

   It becomes a law in half the states.

   The President can sign it anyway.

3. The national and state governments both have three branches. Which pair names the same branch at both levels?

   the Supreme Court and the governor

   Congress and the state legislature

   the President and the state supreme court

   Congress and the governor

4. The President chooses a new Supreme Court justice. Who must approve this choice?

   the President's cabinet the Supreme Court the Senate the state governors

5. A state law says all bikes need lights. A family thinks the law is unfair and goes to court. Which branch will decide?

   the legislative branch the executive branch the governor the judicial branch

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Three Branches of Government

Answer Key - Grade 4 Social Studies Worksheet - Challenge Me

Circle the answer.

1. The President vetoes a bill. How can Congress still make it a law?

   pass it again with a simple majority

   ask the Supreme Court to sign it

   have the Vice President sign it

   vote again and win two-thirds

2. A bill passes the House of Representatives but fails in the Senate. What happens next?

   The Supreme Court decides if it passes.

   It does not go to the President.

   It becomes a law in half the states.

   The President can sign it anyway.

3. The national and state governments both have three branches. Which pair names the same branch at both levels?

   the Supreme Court and the governor

   Congress and the state legislature

   the President and the state supreme court

   Congress and the governor

4. The President chooses a new Supreme Court justice. Who must approve this choice?

   the President's cabinet the Supreme Court the Senate

   the state governors

5. A state law says all bikes need lights. A family thinks the law is unfair and goes to court. Which branch will decide?

   the legislative branch the executive branch the governor

   the judicial branch