Fact and Opinion

Grade 4 Reading Worksheet - Building Confidence

Name _____ Date _____

Read the text. Circle the sentence that is an opinion.

READ THIS FIRST

Our School Needs a Walking Bus

Our school should start a walking school bus. A walking school bus is a group of children who walk to school together with two adults. It follows a set path and picks up kids at stops along the way, just like a real bus.

The first reason is health. Doctors say children need at least sixty minutes of activity every day. A fifteen-minute walk each way gives kids half of that before school even starts.

The second reason is safety near the school. Every morning, about two hundred cars crowd the drop-off lane. Fewer cars would make the crosswalks calmer for everyone. I think the drop-off lane is the most stressful place in our town.

The third reason is friendship. Walking together gives kids time to talk and laugh. My cousin's school in Portland started a walking bus last year. Her principal said that students on the walking bus made friends in other grades.

Some families live too far away to walk. They could drive partway and join the bus at the last stop. That way, everyone can take part. In bad weather, the group could wear raincoats and walk a shorter route.

Starting a walking bus would be easy and cheap. All we need are a map, a few bright vests and some helpful grown-ups. Let's get moving!

1. A walking school bus is a group of children who walk to school together with two adults.
   Our school should start a walking school bus.
   Doctors say children need at least sixty minutes of activity every day.

2. I think the drop-off lane is the most stressful place in our town.
   My cousin's school in Portland started a walking bus last year.
   A fifteen-minute walk each way gives kids half of that before school even starts.

3. Starting a walking bus would be easy and cheap.
   Every morning, about two hundred cars crowd the drop-off lane.
   Her principal said that students on the walking bus made friends in other grades.

4. A walking school bus is a group of children who walk to school together with two adults.
   Her principal said that students on the walking bus made friends in other grades.
   Fewer cars would make the crosswalks calmer for everyone.

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Fact and Opinion

Answer Key - Grade 4 Reading Worksheet - Building Confidence

Read the text. Circle the sentence that is an opinion.

READ THIS FIRST

Our School Needs a Walking Bus

Our school should start a walking school bus. A walking school bus is a group of children who walk to school together with two adults. It follows a set path and picks up kids at stops along the way, just like a real bus.

The first reason is health. Doctors say children need at least sixty minutes of activity every day. A fifteen-minute walk each way gives kids half of that before school even starts.

The second reason is safety near the school. Every morning, about two hundred cars crowd the drop-off lane. Fewer cars would make the crosswalks calmer for everyone. I think the drop-off lane is the most stressful place in our town.

The third reason is friendship. Walking together gives kids time to talk and laugh. My cousin's school in Portland started a walking bus last year. Her principal said that students on the walking bus made friends in other grades.

Some families live too far away to walk. They could drive partway and join the bus at the last stop. That way, everyone can take part. In bad weather, the group could wear raincoats and walk a shorter route.

Starting a walking bus would be easy and cheap. All we need are a map, a few bright vests and some helpful grown-ups. Let's get moving!

1. A walking school bus is a group of children who walk to school together with two adults.
   Our school should start a walking school bus.
   Doctors say children need at least sixty minutes of activity every day.

2. I think the drop-off lane is the most stressful place in our town.
   My cousin's school in Portland started a walking bus last year.
   A fifteen-minute walk each way gives kids half of that before school even starts.

3. Starting a walking bus would be easy and cheap.
   Every morning, about two hundred cars crowd the drop-off lane.
   Her principal said that students on the walking bus made friends in other grades.

4. A walking school bus is a group of children who walk to school together with two adults.
   Her principal said that students on the walking bus made friends in other grades.
   Fewer cars would make the crosswalks calmer for everyone.