The Fire Drill

Text 1

I was in the library when the alarm rang. My heart pounded, and I held my friend's hand as we walked outside. The librarian counted us again and again. We stood by the fence for a while, and I felt relieved when the bell told us to go back in.

Text 2

A fire drill took place at Maple School on Tuesday. According to the school's records, 146 students left the library in under four minutes. The principal said the drill met the safety goal. Teachers counted each class twice before everyone returned inside.
