Rights of Citizens

Grade 4 Social Studies Worksheet - Challenge Me

Name _____ Date _____

Circle the answer.

1. Which is a limit on the right to assemble?
   A gathering may not meet in a public park.
   A gathering may not disagree with leaders.
   A gathering may not have more than ten people.
   A gathering may not block an ambulance.

2. A school paper wants to print a story. Which step shows responsible use of freedom of the press?
   printing a rumor before checking it
   checking every fact with two sources
   leaving out facts the writers dislike changing a quote to sound better

3. A newspaper reports truthfully that the mayor broke a rule. Can the mayor stop the story from being printed?
   Yes, if the city council agrees.
   Yes, leaders can stop stories they dislike.
   No, because newspapers never make mistakes.
   No, the press may print true reports.

4. A city says a march may use Main Street but not the highway. Why might this rule be fair?
   It ends the right to assemble.
   It keeps traffic and people safe.
   It lets the city choose who can march.
   It stops people from sharing ideas.

5. Why does the right to petition matter?
   Leaders must agree with every request.
   People can skip paying taxes.
   People can ask leaders for changes.
   People can make laws without voting.

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Rights of Citizens

Answer Key - Grade 4 Social Studies Worksheet - Challenge Me

Circle the answer.

1. Which is a limit on the right to assemble?

   A gathering may not meet in a public park.

   A gathering may not disagree with leaders.

   A gathering may not have more than ten people.

   A gathering may not block an ambulance.

2. A school paper wants to print a story. Which step shows responsible use of freedom of the press?

   printing a rumor before checking it

   checking every fact with two sources

   leaving out facts the writers dislike

   changing a quote to sound better

3. A newspaper reports truthfully that the mayor broke a rule. Can the mayor stop the story from being printed?

   Yes, if the city council agrees.

   Yes, leaders can stop stories they dislike.

   No, because newspapers never make mistakes.

   No, the press may print true reports.

4. A city says a march may use Main Street but not the highway. Why might this rule be fair?

   It ends the right to assemble.

   It keeps traffic and people safe.

   It lets the city choose who can march.

   It stops people from sharing ideas.

5. Why does the right to petition matter?

   Leaders must agree with every request.

   People can skip paying taxes.

   People can ask leaders for changes.

   People can make laws without voting.