Routine Writing Practice

Grade 4 Writing Worksheet - Challenge Me

PencilGo

Name _____ Date _____

Read each task. Circle the best first sentence.

1. A quick-write asks, "How can students save water at school?" Which first sentence fits best?

   Saving water is a topic many people talk about.

   Water is an important thing that we use every day.

   Our school has many sinks and water fountains.

   Students can save water by turning off the tap while they wash their hands.

2. A quick-write asks, "What is the best way to learn a new sport?" Which first sentence fits best?

   Sports have rules that players must follow, and so do the coaches.

   The best way to learn a new sport is to practice a little every day.

   New sports are fun to try out with friends and family on weekends.

   I tried basketball once at my cousin's house, and it was hard.

3. A quick-write asks, "Why do you think the character lied?" Which first sentence fits best?

   Tomas is a character in the book that we read in class.

   Lying is something that characters in stories sometimes do.

   There are many different reasons why people tell lies sometimes.

   Tomas lied because he was afraid he would lose his friends.

4. A quick-write asks, "Is it better to read a book or watch the movie of it?" Which first sentence fits best?

   Some people like to read, and other people like to watch movies.

   Books and movies are two different kinds of stories that people enjoy.

   Reading the book is better because it lets me picture the story myself.

   I read a book and then watched the movie of it last week.

Scan to get this marked free. No screen time for your child.
Print it · do it in pencil · scan it · PencilGo picks the next sheet.

Routine Writing Practice

Answer Key - Grade 4 Writing Worksheet - Challenge Me

Read each task. Circle the best first sentence.

1. A quick-write asks, "How can students save water at school?" Which first sentence fits best?

   Saving water is a topic many people talk about.

   Water is an important thing that we use every day.

   Our school has many sinks and water fountains.

   Students can save water by turning off the tap while they wash their hands.

2. A quick-write asks, "What is the best way to learn a new sport?" Which first sentence fits best?

   Sports have rules that players must follow, and so do the coaches.

   The best way to learn a new sport is to practice a little every day.

   New sports are fun to try out with friends and family on weekends.

   I tried basketball once at my cousin's house, and it was hard.

3. A quick-write asks, "Why do you think the character lied?" Which first sentence fits best?

   Tomas is a character in the book that we read in class.

   Lying is something that characters in stories sometimes do.

   There are many different reasons why people tell lies sometimes.

   Tomas lied because he was afraid he would lose his friends.

4. A quick-write asks, "Is it better to read a book or watch the movie of it?" Which first sentence fits best?

   Some people like to read, and other people like to watch movies.

   Books and movies are two different kinds of stories that people enjoy.

   Reading the book is better because it lets me picture the story myself.

   I read a book and then watched the movie of it last week.