Use Sensory Details

Answer Key - Grade 4 Writing Worksheet - Challenge Me

Read each scene. Write one sentence that uses the sense named.

1. Scene: cheering fans before a race starts. Write one sentence about the scene that uses the sense of hearing to show the excitement.

Model answer: "Cheers rolled down the stands, and the starting horn made every runner jump." Check that it: uses the sense of hearing; every detail builds an excited mood; is about the race start; is one complete sentence.

2. Scene: Tia waits alone for her ride after a long game. Write one sentence about the scene that uses the sense of hearing to show how she feels.

Model answer: "Only the buzz of the parking lot lights filled the quiet while Tia waited." Check that it: uses the sense of hearing; shows a feeling such as lonely or tired without saying the feeling word; is about Tia's wait; is one complete sentence.

3. Scene: Owen opens the front door after a week away. Write one sentence about the scene that uses the sense of smell to show how he feels.

Model answer: "The smell of Dad's tomato sauce wrapped around Owen, and he knew he was home." Check that it: uses the sense of smell; shows a feeling such as glad or comforted without only saying the feeling word; is about Owen coming home; is one complete sentence.

4. Scene: a quiet library on a rainy afternoon. Write one sentence about the scene that uses the sense of touch to show the calm mood.

Model answer: "The worn book felt soft in my hands as I curled into the big chair." Check that it: uses the sense of touch; every detail builds a calm mood; is about the library; is one complete sentence.
