Answer Key - Grade 4 Writing Worksheet - Building Confidence

Read each scene. Write one sentence that uses the sense named.

1. Scene: eating a slice of watermelon. Write one sentence about the scene that uses the sense of taste.

Model answer: "The watermelon tasted cold and sweet." Check that it: uses the sense of taste; is about the watermelon; is one complete sentence; uses exact words, not just nice or good.

2. Scene: a pizza shop on Friday night. Write one sentence about the scene that uses the sense of smell.

Model answer: "The pizza shop smelled like hot cheese and garlic." Check that it: uses the sense of smell; is about the pizza shop; is one complete sentence; uses exact words, not just nice or good.

3. Scene: a puppy sits on your lap. Write one sentence about the scene that uses the sense of touch.

Model answer: "The puppy's soft fur tickled my arm." Check that it: uses the sense of touch; is about the puppy; is one complete sentence; uses exact words, not just nice or good.

4. Scene: walking home in the rain. Write one sentence about the scene that uses the sense of hearing.

Model answer: "Raindrops tapped on my umbrella all the way home." Check that it: uses the sense of hearing; is about the rainy walk; is one complete sentence; uses exact words, not just nice or good.
